Grace and Peace!

Last Sunday was Rally Day, for the Sunday school. It was a good day, and Sunday school classes will resume in earnest next Sunday, after the Labor Day holiday.

If you receive this letter, it means we do not have an email address for you. If you do not use email, then this is just right. If you do have an email address, please send it to Patty at the church (secretarypresby@gmail.com), and we will add you to the email list.

If you have not been able to join us for live worship in the sanctuary yet, know that we miss you. If you feel it is not safe for you to be out and about, then you are doing the right thing. But I do worry.

Word from around the country is that churches are not filling up the way some had expected they might. Maybe people just got into the habit of not attending worship services on Sunday morning, and maybe that habit will be hard to break. Whatever the reason, I hope we all remember that worshipping together, when we can do so safely, is a central part of what we do as Christians. This is when we check in with each other, and pray and sing and learn together. It is where we form and strengthen the ties that bind.

I feel confident that we will get things back on track before too long.

Blessings,

Brian Jones
